

WELCOME TO HONG KONG

The weather is warming up, and the city is just getting started to kick off the summer season. Check out what's happening around town!

Dua Lipa Live in Hong Kong
Macpherson Stadium

For the first time ever, Dua Lipa will be performing live in Hong Kong. The 22 year old turned some heads when she released her album last year, and she's here to impress.

Listen to:

Scared To Be Lonely ft. Martin Garrix

IDGAF

INFO

Macpherson Stadium

May 1

8PM til late

Disclosure
Macpherson Stadium

Formed by the two brothers Guy Lawrence and Howard Lawrence from Reigate, Surrey, the British electronic music duo Disclosure is deeply inspired and has revived the 90s house in today's music scene. Since starting out as Disclosure eight years ago in 2010, their music tastes and influences have become even more wide-ranging and eclectic. The core of Disclosure's sound mixes UK garage, dubstep, funk and pop music variant that ruled the stage.

Listen to:

Settle

Latch

INFO

Macpherson Studio

May 2

9PM till late

Harry Styles Live in Hong Kong
Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Center Hall 5BC (Expo drive entrance)

Harry Styles first walked into our hearts as the adorable One Direction-er with the ever growing fashion sense. Last year, he released his self-titled album and stole our hearts all over again. He'll be making his return to Hong Kong this time for his tour, along with WARPAIN.

Listen to:

Sign of the Times

INFO

May 5

Hong Kong CEC Hall 5BC

8PM till late

TALK LIKE A LOCAL
 Know slang from the streets.

Dik-see

Taxi

Hey, can you help me call a dik.see?

Fukuro

A brand new Izakaya restaurant brought to you by Black Sheep Restaurants will be debuting this month in Central. Located next to its sister restaurant Ho Lee Fook, you can expect their new restaurant to bring the same fun vibe, and delicious food. Shun Sato will be heading the restaurant with Ho Lee Fook's executive chef Jowett Yu, and the menu will showcase a variety of Japanese classics from sashimi platters to grilled and simmered dishes. Don't forget to order a whisky highball!

INFO

Monday - Sunday: 6:00 PM till late

1-5 Elgin Street, Central

Chifa

Following their recent opening of MEATS in Soho, Pirata is opening a new venue called Chifa where the venue will be featuring another Peruvian fusion restaurant. Chifa is a dumpling house concept where Peruvian and Chinese cuisines meet and presents a laid back dining concept. The most important? The dumplings. The venue is no reservations, but the back of the restaurant will allow bookings for larger parties.

INFO

Monday - Sunday: open for lunch and dinner

26 Peel Street, Central

Lily & Bloom presents Blackout Brunch

Lily & Bloom is no stranger to the food or party scene in Hong Kong, and they have always served up a great brunch. Now, on every last Sunday of the month, they will be presenting Blackout Brunch--a themed one-of-a-kind Sunday where both party-goers and food lovers will be able to enjoy a bottomless feast of great foods and free flow prosecco, wines, beer, Aperol Spritzes and Bloody Marys. Grab some friends, fill those bellies, and get ready to dance.

Not hungry? (I don't believe you, but whatever) You can opt in for just their free-flow beverage package for their four-hour window.

INFO

Every last Sunday of the month - next up is May 26th

12 PM - 4 PM

Advanced bookings required

$530+10% service charge for unlimited food and drinks

$265+10% service charge for freeflow drinks only

Uma Nota

38 Peel Street, Central

Uma Nota has been a Hong Kong favorite for a while now, and they are officially open for brunch on Sundays. You can expect their Brazilian street food favorites, along with two different freeflow packages.

INFO

Sundays: 12 PM - 3:30 PM

$295 per person

Freeflow #1: +$195 per person - prosecco, draught beer, soft drinks, homemade sodas and iced tea

Freeflow #2: +$245 per person - cocktails, Shiso spritz, and wine

AT W HONG KONG

Sing Yin

Book in at Sing Yin and check out our new fresh fruit promotion!

