

WELCOME TO HONG KONG

Take a look at what's happening around Hong Kong this month!

Arbor
25/F, H Queen's, 80 Queen's Road Central

As a new addition to H Queen's, Arbor is the sister establishment to Epure, and is a contemporary French fine-dining restaurant with Chefs Nicolas Boutin and Eric Rätty at the helm. The restaurant promises an artistic approach to a seasonally inspired menu, which pays homage to nature's seasons with ingredients mainly sourced from Japan. The interiors are split into a dining room and bar area, along with a private dining room that seats up to 20 people. Don't forget to stop by the galleries in H Queen's after!

Taco Tuesdays at Little Creatures
5A New Praya Kennedy Town

Sometimes the start of the week can be a little rough, and you need a pick me up. Little Creatures has always been a weekend favorite, especially when you want to escape from the city. Now, every Tuesday, Little Creatures presents Taco Tuesdays where you can enjoy bottomless tacos for two hours, along with unlimited beers. You can choose from their menu of beers, including their seasonal brew, and you can mix and match your tacos with each order.

INFO

Dates: Every Tuesday

Price: Unlimited tacos and beer at HKD $250 per person for two hours

Madame Ching
G/F, No. 5 Star Street, Wan Chai

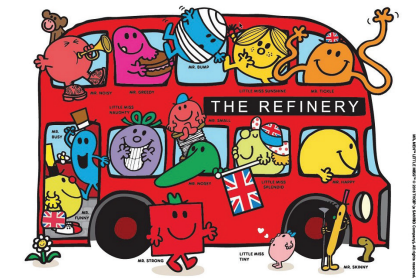

Hot on the heels of the opening of Chifa, Madame Ching has opened in Wan Chai to replace Pirata's previous pop up—BALLS. Madame Ching is a modern Chinese restaurant and roast house with an innovative menu of dishes and cocktails. You can expect classic Hong Kong roasted delicacies such as char siu and roast goose with some expertly curated cocktails inspired by Asian flavors.
