

WELCOME TO HONG KONG

Get ready to soak up the warm weather, lay out by the pool, or explore the city!

July 4th at Lily & Bloom
5/F, LKF Tower, 33 Wyndham Street, Central

Whether you're feeling patriotic, or you just want to enjoy some July 4th fun, stop by Lily & Bloom for an all American party with BBQ, beer and beats. There'll be a DJ playing your favorite American rock & hip hop tracks while you enjoy bottomless food and free-flow Peroni beers. It's not a July 4th feast without classics like baby back ribs, grilled corn and baked mac n cheese, so make a booking and tuck in! If you really want to step it up, join in on the Wings Eating contest—whichever eats the most wings in 30 seconds gets a bottle of champagne on the house.

Headhunterz at Zentral
4/F, California Tower, 32 D'Aguilar Street, Central

The King of Hardstyle is coming to Zentral for one night only. He's headlined at Tomorrowland, Ultra and EDC, and he's collaborated with multiple artists over the years. He had taken some time off of hard style but since he's returned, he's continued to headline on main stages and has released The Return of Headhunterz earlier this year. You're not going to want to miss him.

Jinjuu
UG/F, 32 D'Aguilar Street, Central

Jinjuu is the first Korean restaurant in Asia to partner up with Impossible to create modern Korean dishes with a twist. The collaboration will debut with Jinjuu's signature dishes created with Impossible's plant-based meat. The best part? All items on this new menu are vegan friendly. Signature items from the new menu will be their Steamed Impossible Korean Dumplings along with their Korean Impossible Tacos with Bulgogi-imitation Impossible plant-based meat.

Madame Fu

Shop 03, 3/F, Tai Kwun, 10 Hollywood Road, Central

Madame Fu is another addition to the newly opened Tai Kwun. Similar to Dragonfly, Madame Fu is more than just a restaurant—it's an experience. The venue channels an east-meets-west ethos that is an homage to the fictional Madame Fu—a socialite who opened a grand salon in Shanghai in the 30s after living in Paris. The venue will encompass a main dining room, bar, whisky lounge, private rooms and two open-air verandahs featuring Cantonese food, as well as western desserts and afternoon tea.
